

Our Prenatal Program Philosophy

- Our program recognizes that every pregnancy has a unique and profound impact on you and your family.
- Support at this time can have long and short term benefits, so we ensure that all who need or want prenatal support can access low to no-cost services.
- This is a program that can benefit ALL pregnant women.
- Our overall goal is to enhance the health of families in our community.

Prenatal Education

Our group Prenatal Education class series runs for 6 weeks. You and your partner of choice can explore the following topics together:

- Healthy lifestyle for pregnancy, nutrition, and exercise
- Late pregnancy symptoms and how to cope with them
- Signs for concern in late pregnancy and preterm labour
- Physical and emotional process of birth
- Natural pain management and medications for labour
- Common medical procedures and caesarean birth
- Life with your new baby
- Infant feeding and nutrition

Call us for more information (including our current fee) or to register. We offer a sliding scale as needed.

Our services are accredited through CARF
