South Island Community Connections (SICC)

Supporting adults with disabilities living on southern Vancouver Island

We acknowledge the traditional territories of the Coast Salish Nations and Nuu-chah-nulth Nations of southern Vancouver Island

What is South Island Community Connections?

The South Island Community Connections program is a person-centered service offered to eligible adults designed to support greater independence at home and in the community.

Services offered focus on skill development, community inclusion, outreach and employment support.

The SICC team is proud to offer individualized, one-to-one supports as well as our popular twice per week Empowering Personal

Activity Club

The Empowering Personal Wellness Adult Activity Club provides a safe and supportive environment for adults to engage with peers, develop new skills, and access community activities and resources.

Monthly activities may include:

- Arts and crafts and cooking
- Movie and pizza day
- Games and D&D
- Tourist attractions and recreation
- Exercise and outdoors activities
- Day trips and up-island adventures
- Beach days and BBQs
- Special Holiday and seasonal events
- Skills workshops and presentations

Specific Support

We help you with ...

- Personal health and hygiene
- Budgeting and time management
- Shopping and meal planning
- Problem solving and resources
- Community Inclusion
- Social networking
- Employment support
- Transportation support

Hours and Location

One-to-one support services are available 8:30 am to 5:30 pm Monday to Friday. Appointments outside regular service hours available by request.

The Empowering Personal Wellness Adult Activity Club runs Tuesday and Wednesday from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm
