

What We Do

- We work with youth with mild to moderate life challenges (i.e. family conflict, school stresses, peer issues, emotional or psychological distress)
- We meet you, have a chat, and plan together to see where to go from there
- We provide support for working towards your mental health goals
- We can help you navigate the mental health system
- We can connect you to other helpful resources
- We can help you with advocacy, transportation, and representation

We help you to...

- Feel better emotionally and mentally
- Communicate and cope better
- Create your own healthy lifestyle

We acknowledge the support of the Province of British Columbia and Children's Health Foundation of Vancouver Island.

We thank the following program funders:

Island Health, United Way,
Victoria Foundation, & the District of Sooke.

Did you know...? SFRS is a charitable not for profit agency. Many of our services are funded only by the generous support of our community.
